DDA 77-2175

18 April 1977

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Regulations Control Branch, ISAS
THRU : Chief, Information Systems Analysis Staff FROM :
Assistant for Information, DDA
SUBJECT : Distribution of Regulatory Issuances to the Office of Legislative Counsel

Edgar:

You will recall that we recently compiled and provided to the Office of Legislative Counsel an updated set of the Headquarters regulations for provision to the Chairman, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. It is important that the Senate Select Committee have readily available current Agency regulatory publications. Therefore, it is requested that, effective immediately, you provide OLC with one additional copy of all official CIA regulatory issuances. We will defer to that office the question of which regulatory publications warrant forwarding to the Senate Select Committee.

The attached letter to Chairman Inouye is recommended for your signature. You agreed during your confirmation hearings to notify the SSCI of changes in CIA internal regulations. The Church Committee was provided a full set of CIA regulations in April 1975 and that copy is now in custody of the SSCI. Rather than supplying only the changes since April 1975, I am enclosing a complete set of regulations, plus a transmittal letter to Chairman Inouye. You may wish to personally deliver these to the Chairman at your next meeting.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

During my confirmation hearings I agreed to keep the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence informed of changes in CIA internal regulations. Enclosed is a complete set of these regulations, to replace the copy provided the Church Committee in April 1975. As new or revised regulations are approved and published, a copy will be promptly provided to the Select Committee.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER
Admiral, U. S. Navy

Dear Admiral Turner:

It is the Senate Select Committee's understanding that, at present, the name "the National Reconnaissance Office" is classified Top Secret [REDACTED]. The name of the office has appeared both in the media and now in legislation introduced in the House of Representatives. The Senate Select Committee would very much appreciate your thoughts on whether there is any reason to continue the classification of the name of this office.

Aloha,

Daniel K. Inoué
Chairman

NOTE FOR: The Director

25X1 Attached for your consideration is a suggested text for your use with the SSCI Monday afternoon. I have kept a copy of it and have sent one to [redacted]

25X1 As you will see, we have tried to paint the dilemma involved in reporting on sensitive collection operations along the lines we had discussed earlier. Your remarks set the state for [redacted] and me to generalize on the various categories on collection operations. [redacted] will be prepared to discuss the [redacted] programs. I will talk about [redacted] The 25X1 emphasis in our remarks will be how we decide to resort to these operations, how we control them, how we evaluate them--in short we will be doing our best to impart a feeling about the sensitivity as well as the responsibility and professionalism we exercise in carrying out operations of this kind.
